

The Ritz-Carlton, Berlin

Potsdamer Platz 3
10785 Berlin

★★★★★ DEHOGA

Walking into The Ritz-Carlton, Berlin grants access to an inspiring combination of glamour from Germany's golden 1920s and the modernity of Berlin's cultural capital. Located on Potsdamer Platz, an acclaimed symbol of unification and transformation, the hotel was built as a tribute to Art Deco architecture. Its recent renovation reflects the ever-changing nature of one of the world's most popular and visited cities, providing a place where guests can discover the very spirit and diversity of vibrant Berlin. Each of the 303 guestrooms, including 40 suites and Penthouse apartment are richly designed using a present-day interpretation of the Art Deco era, revealing a comfortable and inviting haven. Fusing a sophisticated lacquer finish with crisscross detailing, all rooms have a distinct, residential quality with high-end feel, set apart by sleek marbled, en-suite bathrooms and the latest in intuitive technology. Known as a culinary destination for both guests and locals, The Ritz-Carlton, Berlin is a popular draw for innovative casual dining and creative cocktails. Explore German and seasonal delicacies at POTS Restaurant or extraordinary cocktails at The Curtain Club.
