Kurfürstendamm 160
10709 Berlin

Experience Berlin's noble hospitality, in a glamorous city domicile with the charm of the good old times. Surrounded by the vibrant life of the famous Kurfürstendamm you will find living culture of the finest art in the house number 160. The typical Berlin style mansion has been restored with a special affinity to details and almost invisibly equipped with the latest technical features. The architectural treasure, from 1904 combines classicism with modern elegance and provides a representative residence fulfilling highest demands - whether for days, weeks or months. Harmonically integrated into the historical frame, the exclusive concept of -temporary living- is continued inside with the classy and elegant interior. High ornamented ceilings, an impressive staircase, and wrought-iron banisters remind you of the splendour of Berlin during the turn of the century. The individual floor plans of the 47 suites present the perfect surrounding for all kinds of desires around living - from 41 sqm up to 102 sqm offer room for your personality. We pamper you on a grand scale - down to the smallest detail. Experience savoir-vivre leaving no desire unfulfilled.
